Dear Jim:

Enclosed are copies of an Office Action we received for the above-identified case, and a Response that we mailed on January 7, 1992. We could not respond in substance, because the Examiner did not provide a copy of the cited art or a complete citation for the reference.

In addition, the Examiner did not specify the shortened statutory period for response; however, we confirmed with a clerk at the Patent Office that the period for response was set for three months. If the Examiner does not respond by the end of this period, we will attempt to contact him by telephone.

Sincerely,

Marta E. Gross
